

The DESCO Group
314.994.4444
info@descogroup.com

Asset Management

Construction Complete at Darmstadt Crossing in Evansville, IN

Brokerage

Evansville, IN. – The DESCO Group, Inc. and its contractor, Brinkmann Constructors, have put the finishing touches on a new retail shopping center development at the intersection of US – 41 and Boonville-New Harmony Rd in Evansville, IN.

Construction Management

The new shopping center is anchored by Schnucks, the premier grocery retailer in the Midwest. Opening November 11th, the Darmstadt Crossing store is Schnucks' sixth Evansville-area location. Joining Schnucks in the adjacent retail space are Premiere Tan, Bebe Nails & Spa, and Philly Grill, as well as German American Bank on a frontage outparcel. With two of the remaining outparcels under contract, the shopping center is off to a great start.

Corporate Real Estate

Development

Darmstadt Crossing is well situated to deliver a convenient shopping destination for area residents and Evansville commuters. With 8,400 sf of retail and 4 outparcels available as of the date of this release, Darmstadt Crossing can accommodate most business requirements. For more information about the shopping center and current availabilities, please click here.

Property Management

Founded in 1993, The DESCO Group, Inc. provides comprehensive development, construction management, investment management, property management, and brokerage services. The DESCO Group currently manages over $700 million in assets, including a portfolio of 40 grocery-anchored shopping centers, on behalf of its institutional and private investor partners.